Interview Questions

1. In both books in your Faith to Live By series you write using what's known as apologetics to defend the faith-claims you make. Why do you appeal to the intellect concerning spiritual matters?
2. You state there are conditions of faith that must be satisfied before a person can expect to receive anything from God. What do you mean by that?
3. You're very careful to explain that faith in Christ is about relationship, not religion or a formula. I appreciate that you simplified the process that people will follow in their sincere quest to find truth and God. Explain these four steps for our listeners/viewers.
4. One area that I particularly enjoyed was your explanation about how Believers are uniquely eligible to have authority in both the physical and spiritual worlds. Explain that please.
5. I've never heard some of the points you made about the interrelation between our physical existence and our brain waves and the impact that has on us spiritually. Can you provide an overview for our audience?
6. You also wrote about the three realms of the human existence and the impact that the physical and spiritual laws have on us, whether we're aware of it or not. Give us an example of how this works.
7. You really emphasize the fact that Believers fully their new identity in Christ. Would you address this briefly please?
8. Not all Christians agree about the availability of supernatural gifts today the same as they were during the Age of the Apostles. What would you like your readers to reconsider about this?
9. There are times that I think you are about to embrace what has become known as the Word of Faith Movement, but then I continue to read and actually note that you take exception to much of it. Where do you stand on the "Name it Claim it" theology?

RENEW YOUR HOPE! REMEDY FOR PERSONAL BREAKTHROUGHS

By
Pamela Christian

Multiple award-winning author Pamela Christian explains the premise for writing this book:

Faith that moves mountains is something we can experience, if we understand how to wield effective faith. Effective faith is not "Word Faith" theology where a person seeks to declare what they want to occur in his or her life. Rather, effective faith is "Faith Word" theology, where Believers learn to trust God for His promises to occur in this life!

From Renew Your Hope! Remedy for Personal Breakthroughs, the second book in the Faith to Live By series, you can:

- Learn the fullness of what Christ offers you
- Uncover the deceptions that have prevented you from moving ahead
- Discover Christ's authority and power that God wants you to operate in
- Take hold of the abundant, victorious life Christ died to provide you

The first book in this series, Examine Your faith! Finding Truth in a World of Lies, explores essential faith—that is believing faith in the person and work of Jesus Christ. Essential faith must be in place in order for anyone to experience mountain moving faith. Christian states:

God is just as tired of you not experiencing the breakthroughs you need, as you are. God has done everything necessary to make it possible for you to overcome obstacles in this life. For Believers not to experience God's promises is evidence of inaccurate understanding of God's will, word, character and intent.

This book is written for those who are weary from the burdens of life, who think they have tried everything and that either God is reluctant to work in his/her life or the existence of God and Him being good and loving has come into question. It is written with great compassion from the author, who shares from her personal experiences and the experiences of others. Filled with fresh wisdom and insights from Scripture, and amazing and encouraging testimonies, Pamela Christian offers new perspectives and truth discoveries for a vital Christian faith that is greatly needed by many people today.
