Quote from Oswald Chambers:

“Perseverance is more than endurance. It is endurance combined with absolute assurance and certainty that what we are looking for is going to happen. Perseverance means more than just hanging on, which may be only exposing our fear of letting go and falling. Perseverance is our supreme effort of refusing to believe that our hero is going to be conquered. Our greatest fear is not that we will be damned, but that somehow Jesus Christ will be defeated. Also, our fear is that the very things our Lord stood for—love, justice, forgiveness, and kindness among men—will not win out in the end and will represent an unattainable goal for us. Then there is the call to spiritual perseverance. A call not to hang on and do nothing, but to work deliberately, knowing with certainty that God will never be defeated.

If our hopes seem to be experiencing disappointment right now, it simply means that they are being purified. Every hope or dream of the human mind will be fulfilled if it is noble and of God. But one of the greatest stresses in life is the stress of waiting for God. He brings fulfillment, “because you have kept My command to persevere... (Revelation 3:10).

Continue to persevere spiritually.”

Quotes about Trust:

“A single lie discovered is enough to create doubt in every truth expressed.”

“Trust takes years to build, seconds to break, and forever to repair.”

“Trust starts with truth and ends with truth.”

“I’m not upset that you lied to me, I’m upset that from now on I can’t believe you.”

“Trust is the glue of life. It’s the most essential ingredient in effective communication. It’s the foundational principle that holds all relationships.” Stephen R. Covey

“Stop asking me to trust you while I’m still coughing up water from the last time you let me drown.”
